How to Use Style Personalities to Create Unique Client Wardrobes

As an image consultant you know it is important to have “Style”, but do you know how to teach your clients how to have STYLE? In this fun hour, you’ll learn how Karen’s approach to Style Personality has helped her work with her clients and teach them to put their own personal style to work in their wardrobe and make it unique.

Karen Hughes brings a lifetime of passion in style, fashion, education and learning techniques to women trying to find their way out of their wardrobe rut and into an authentic style personality. Her unique gift of teaching allows her to be successful in many industry sectors.
